Camp: large area for easy parking, for big rigs, some trees, mostly flat.

Directions: AERC Sign will be out on Hwy 26

Coming from Madras: Traveling south on Hwy 97, drive thru Madras, take a left onto SE Hwy 26 (Madras/Prineville Hwy). Travel 11 miles to driveway to ride camp on the left.

Traveling north on Hwy 97 towards Terrebonne, turn right onto Smith Rock Way in Terrebonne, drive approximately 5.5 miles, turn left onto Lone Pine Rd. go approximately 6 miles to SE Hwy 26, turn left, go 2 miles, then turn right onto driveway to camp.

Trail Info:

Mixed high desert trails. Two-track and cow trails, with sections of volcanic rock. Gentle rolling elevation changes. Very doable early season ride. Also, GATES. This area is grazed by range cattle, so gates are a fact of life out here. Steps, stumps or gate-keepers will be at each gate.

The Grizzly Mtn Ride is operated under a Special Use Permit with the Crooked River National Grasslands, with thanks to Sara and Roger Miller and Linda Tribby.

Food options will be available. Bring your own water to drink Horse water in camp, Porta Potties available. Spread Hay and manure, fill all holes, leave no trace!
